Investment consultant's report:

Mr. Eddie Guerra and Mr. Jeff Gabrione represented Mercer Investment Consulting at the meeting.

Economic Profile:

Mr. Guerra reported that the economy showed signs of recovery as activity in the manufacturing sector and the housing market picked up. However, the labor market and consumer confidence remained weak, dampening prospects for a full recovery. The initial government estimate of third-quarter GDP growth was 3.5%. The September payroll report was disappointing as the number of jobs lost increased, after trending downward in July and August. Initial jobless claims fell to their lowest level since January. The unemployment rate rose to 9.8%, a 26-year high. Retail sales jumped 2.7% in August, helped by the federal "cash for clunkers" program. Consumer confidence dipped in September amid concerns over the weak job market.

The Fed maintained the target range for the federal funds rate at 0% to 0.25% and extended the MBS and agency bond purchase program to March 2010. Short-term rates fell as the 3-month T-bill yield decreased 5 basis points, ending the quarter at 0.14%. The yield on 30-year Treasuries fell 20 basis points to 4.03%. Consumer prices increased slightly during the quarter, but have fallen 1.3% on a year-over-year basis. Core CPI was up 1.5% from a year ago.

The stock market rally that began in March continued through the third quarter amid signs of economic stabilization and better-than-expected corporate profits. The S&P 500 Index gained 15.6%, while the Russell 1000 Index gained 16.1%. The bond market posted solid returns as yields declined and spreads tightened. Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index was up 3.7% for the quarter. International equity markets outperformed US markets during the quarter as the MSCI EAFE Index gained 19.5% in US dollar terms. The Index was up 14.9% in local currency terms.

Mr. Guerra reported that the current market value was $1,197,133,216 as of October 31, 2009.

Hedge Fund of Fund Search:

Mr. Guerra and Mr. Gabrione provided updated facts and figures, manager profiles and analysis of past performance on the Hedge Fund of Funds Managers that were previously considered by MPERS.

Motion by Mr. Greene seconded by Mr. Dean to interview Hedge Fund of Fund Managers, Aurora, EnTrust and Common Sense at the December 2009 meeting. Without objection the motion carried.

Mr. Dean requested that Mercer hold an educational meeting on Alternative Investing, Private Placements and Venture Capital at the February 2010 meeting.
